Advanced Difficult Airway Management (ADAM-D) Workshop for Doctors 2008

The Advanced & Difficult Airway Management (ADAM) Workshop for doctors aims to equip medical professionals with up-to-date knowledge and skills to provide the most optimal and safest patient care during critical airway management. Different devices and techniques will be introduced, and different strategies to handle different airway crisis will be practiced.

Date: 15 March 2008 (Sat), 12 July 2008 (Sat), 20 September 2008 (Sat) (Three identical workshops)
Time: 08:30am to 13:00pm
Venue: The Institute of Clinical Simulation, 3/F, North District Hospital
Course fee: HK$600
CME accreditations: Pending
Class Capacity: 16 persons (First come first served basis)
Format: Pre-workshop reading, lectures, small group hands-on practical stations & problem-solving session led by trained instructors in airway management.
Target participants: This workshop is suitable for doctors working in AED, Intensive & Critical Care Units, Operating Theatre, Medical and Surgical Wards.

Application form can be downloaded from HKCA website: www.hkca.edu.hk or Department of Anaesthesiology & Operating Services NDH Intranet: http://ndh.home/department/anaes/home.htm

Registration will base on first come first served basis.
Please register 3 weeks before your intended course date.
For enquiries, please contact ICS Manager Ms. Ip at 2683-8307 or email ipy530@ha.org.hk